3. Claims 12-13, 15, 20, 22 and 27 have been amended.
4. Claims 12-13, 15-16, 20, 22 and 25-27 are pending for consideration.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 12-13, 15-16, 20, 22 and 25-27 are allowed.
7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As noted above, the Examiner agrees with the Applicant's arguments on pages 9-12 of the Remarks, specifically that the prior art does not teach "(i) that the first and second code portions be marked or bounded by a first entry point and first instruction that creates a break in the flow of execution, which is the ending point of the code portion; (ii) that the pre-calculated checksum be passed as a parameter to the first instruction that creates a branch in the flow of execution and ends the current code portion being verified; and (iii) that the pre-calculated checksum is compared to the current calculated checksum during execution of the ending instruction that creates a branch in the flow of execution of the code portion". These features, in combination with the other claim limitations, are not anticipated by, nor made obvious over, the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
